

DIVERSITY EQUITY + INCLUSION

EDUCATION + TRAINING

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State University offers many avenues for all community members to increase their knowledge and skills related to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI). The Office of Institutional Diversity (OID) maintains a curated list of institutional learning opportunities for faculty, staff and students at diversity.oregonstate.edu/diversity-education.

OID also offers consultations on individual learning plans for those who have needs that fall outside of their regularly offered programs.

COLLEGE OF FORESTRY

The College of Forestry provides DEI and social justice learning programming, often in collaboration with university and external partners. We prioritize opportunities to engage in dialog with one another, and to explore identities, histories and perspectives that may be different from our own. These trainings and discussions may be held as stand-alone events, or integrated into departmental and unit meetings. Look for event announcements in the DEI Newsletter and in COF This Week. COF maintains a list of available DEI and social justice resources, including articles and guides for self-study, curriculum development and group discussion. Please visit www.forestry.oregonstate.edu/diversity.

The College of Forestry strives to be a community that values and cares for all of its members. If you have experienced bias, discrimination, bullying or harassment, we encourage you to talk confidentially with Cristina Eisenberg, Associate Dean for Inclusive Excellence and Mabelle Clark Macdonald Director of Tribal Initiatives in Natural Resources (cristina.eisenberg@oregonstate.edu), your Department Head, or with Lori Hodgert, DEI Workgroup Administrative Coordinator (lori.hodgert@oregonstate.edu). If you are struggling and we can help in any way, please reach out and let us know. This sheet provides other resources that you may wish to use, in addition to or in place of those in the College of Forestry.
