

Western Red Cedar

Superpower: Cedar is naturally antibacterial and antifungal. It is also beautiful and has a fragrant scent.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Plywood

Superpower: Plywood is an engineered wood product where wood is glued together to make a flat sheet. It is versatile, very stable, and has high impact resistance. It can have a natural wood grain look with a veneer layer

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Teak

Superpower: Teak is very water resistant and one of the most durable woods. It is also used for its beauty.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Douglas-Fir

Superpower: State tree of Oregon! Grows quickly to be very tall and straight. Used often in construction projects and is used in Mass Timber products.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Black Walnut

Superpower: Beautiful dark color. A little toxic, so should not be used for anything that touches food.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

White Ash

Superpower: This flexible wood is often used for baseball bats, rowing oars, and tools like rakes and spades.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Balsa

Superpower: Balsa is extremely light! The gold standard for use in model airplanes, surf boards, and in wind turbines.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Purple Heart

Superpower: Deep purple color. Often used in furniture or art pieces.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

Curly Maple

Superpower: Incredible movement in the look of the wood. Used for furniture application.

Strength

Durability

Flexibility

Price

